

Iced

Rachael Cunningham

Oil on stretched canvas

48in x 60in

I create surrealistic and impasto oil paintings that explore themes of innocence and childhood. My work is primarily representational and explores the poetic meanings of symbolism. Iced inspired me to push my exploration of surrealism and symbolism further to tell the story of this girl comprised of baked goods.

